

VITAL SIGNS:, Reveal a blood pressure of *, temperature of *, respirations *, and pulse of *. ,CONSTITUTIONAL: , Normal appearance for chronological age, does not appear chronically ill.,HEENT: , The pupils are equal and reactive. Funduscopic examination is normal. Posterior pharynx is normal. Tympanic membranes are clear.,NECK: ,Trachea is midline. Thyroid is normal. The neck is supple. Negative nodes.,RESPIRATORY:, Lungs are clear to auscultation bilaterally. The patient has a normal respiratory rate, no signs of consolidation and no egophony. There are no retractions or secondary muscle use. Good bilateral breath sounds are noted.,CARDIOVASCULAR: , No jugular venous distention or carotid bruits. No increase in heart size to percussion. There is no murmur. Normal S1 and S2 sounds are noted without gallop.,ABDOMEN: , Soft to palpation in all four quadrants. There is no organomegaly and no rebound tenderness. Bowel sounds are normal. Obturator and psoas signs are negative.,GENITOURINARY: , No bladder tenderness, negative flank pain.,MUSCULOSKELETAL:, Extremities are normal with good motor tone and strength, normal reflexes, and normal joint strength and sensation.,NEUROLOGIC: , Normal Glasgow Coma Scale. Cranial nerves II through XII appear grossly intact. Normal motor and cerebellar tests. Reflexes are normal.,HEME/LYMPH: ,No abnormal lymph nodes, no signs of bleeding, skin purpura, petechiae or hemorrhage.,PSYCHIATRIC: , Normal with no overt depression or suicidal ideations.