

EXAM:, Magnified airway.,CLINICAL HISTORY: , An 11-month-old female with episodes of difficulty in breathing, cough.,TECHNIQUE: , Multiple fluoroscopic spot images of the pharyngeal airway, trachea, and mainstem bronchi were performed in various phases of respiration.,FINDINGS:, The airway is patent throughout its course. Specifically, the trachea and both mainstem bronchi do not demonstrate evidence of dynamic collapse greater than 50%.,No filling defects are identified.,The vocal cords demonstrate normal opening and closing.,IMPRESSION: , Normal magnified airway examination.